

London South Bank University

21 March
2012

10am-4pm

The Keyworth Centre
London South Bank
University (LSBU)
Borough Road
London SE1 0AA

 Speakers

 Question &
Answer
Opportunities

 Interactive workshops including:
mental health
advocacy,
non-verbal
partnerships,
partnership
with parents & carers... and many more!

Lunch & Refreshments provided

LSBU Students and Service User Associates present:

Partnership in Social Care at a time of cuts

Creative approaches and practical solutions

A FREE conference for all those involved in or working in social care - students, service users & professionals

Join us...

- to showcase and promote partnership working
- to examine the impact of financial cuts to partnership working and how this has affected service users, carers & social care practitioners
- to look at good practice and creative examples of how to work in partnership during a period of cuts
- to share the outcomes of the conference / report widely to promote and widen knowledge of partnership working

Speakers...

Peter Beresford

*Professor of Social Policy at Brunel University, Chair of Service User Organisation
- Shaping our Lives*

Kaliya Franklin & Sue Marsh

Disability & Benefits Activists and Bloggers

Peter McDermott

Non-executive director, National Treatment Agency

Cllr Lorna Reith

*Deputy Leader and Cabinet Member for Children,
Haringey Council
(Tottenham Hale Ward)*

For more information or to book, email: socialworkconference@lsbu.ac.uk